

Salt Lake City Commercial Club

Salt Lake will be the biggest and most important city west of Chicago--Harriman, 1903.

GREET A ROTARIAN AND PROVE YOURSELF A GOOD HOST

GET ACQUAINTED WITH A ROTARIAN—Always keep it in mind that members of the Commercial club are good hosts and that they will be called upon to properly represent Salt Lake when the International Convention of Rotarians opens during the week of June 15. You already know that the city will be taxed to its limit for accommodation and if you live at the club consider sharing your room with a visiting Rotarian. You will find that it proved one of your most congenial weeks, and better acquaintance of a Rotarian is worthy of anyone's most sincere attention.

Cots will be placed in the assembly rooms to add to the comfort of the visitors and there will be special service in the dining room to assist in feeding visiting Rotarians, who in all will number approximately 5000. At the request of the Executive Committee of Rotary the club dining room will be open for breakfast, luncheon and dinner during convention week.

CLUB FAMILY GROWING—Live young business men who have been added to the Commercial club family since the last Bulletin went to press, are taking interest in club affairs in a manner most gratifying. These new members include G. A. Hager, manager, Universal Film & Supply Co.; Fred A. Gene, The Owl Drug Co., Inc.; Frank J. Hewlett, Hewlett-Wilson Beverage Co.; Charles S. Jay, Wright's Inc.; L. P. Rishel, General Auto Service Co.; E. B. Spofford, manager, Hippodrome Theatre; E. M. Fillmore, Ford Motor Co.; L. E. Morgan, salesman, Alkire-Smith Auto Co.; C. B. Stebbins, district manager, Kee Lox Manufacturing Co.; Alex S. Sims, manager, Packard Agency, The Sims Co., Autos & Trucks, and these two non-resident members: W. B. Terry, 115 W. Fifth South, Provo, and J. E. King, railroad accountant.

ANNUAL ELECTION JUNE 14—Considerable interest is developing in the annual election of five members to the board of governors, which takes place at the club Saturday, June 14. Those placed in nomination for membership on the board by the nominating committee are Lester D. Freed, John C. Howard, F. C. Schramm, M. H. Sowles and W. N. Williams. Retiring members of the board are F. C. Richmond, Edward Rosenbaum, C. A. Faus, F. C. Schramm and W. N. Williams. Any five members in good standing and who are not officers may nominate a different ticket. See by-laws.

BANKERS CONVENE AT CLUB—The annual convention of the Utah State Bankers association will take place in the lounging room at the Commercial club June 10 and 11. It will be one of the most important conventions in the history of the association. Matters of big finance and the development of the state will be discussed.

JUST A WORD ABOUT DUES—During the rush of the war activities a few members forgot to pay their dues. That of course was only natural and we are now giving more attention to the matter of dues. Just think for a minute and send your check by return mail. Or, we can send you our genial collector, who will inform you very pleasantly of the arrears. But do not be offended when the collector comes. Remember—he is our friend, besides it's good business.

TRANSPORTATION PERPLEXING—Railway discrimination against Salt Lake is being investigated from many angles by the Transportation committee, with the view of taking early remedial action. A big meeting of transportation men is scheduled to take place Tuesday luncheon.

Invest a dollar in Boyhood to build Manhood. Scout Week, June 8-14
